A Sad Time for Richmond

Bright eyes.
A shining smile.

A 21-year-old man known to light up a room.

The morning of March 18, 2015, the lives of many people were forever changed.

Tommy Priemer, a graduate of Richmond High School, was killed in a horrific fatal car crash.

Tommy was a boy well-known around Richmond as someone with an ability to make anyone smile. He had an uncanny ability to turn your day around.

Tommy loved huge 4-wheeled trucks, hunting, and snow-mobiling. His truck was parked outside the church that held his funeral, adorned in flowers.

Tommy was a man of outstanding character. He would go out of his way and above and beyond to help anyone, at any time, regardless of the situation. Everyone knew Tommy would never fail to provide a helping hand to anybody in need.

After his passing, David Stafford, also an alumnus of Richmond High School, started a GoFundMe page to raise money for the Priemer family in this time of need.

With a goal of $10,000, the website designed for fundraising soon soared far goal. Within 11 days of being started, over $16,700 has been raised.

Richmond managed to give a bit of light to a family suffering through a dark time, coming together for the sake of one of its own. Small town people with a love that no big city could surmount.

These actions reflect Tommy's spirit-- and something Tommy would have done for someone else.

Tommy was one-of-a-kind. He will be greatly missed and surely never forgotten.
